Pierre and martin's flag sheet October 2020 (version 1)

These flags are for 15mm Mexican army units.

They can be used for "Fighting for Mexico" (FM) rules.

- The national flag (green, red and white can be used by all armies.
- The skull and crossbones flags were popular with rebel forces but were also used by Government units on occasion too.
- The flag spine is in a variety of colours in order to aid unit identification whilst playing FM.
- The square flags in the national colours are for the generals. A swallow tail or triangular form can be made of them.
